July 29-August 3, 2008

Welcome to Indianapolis!

Bishop
Lambert W. Gates, Sr.
Host Pastor

Greetings in Jesus Name!

In just a very short time, the Pentecostal Churches of the Apostolic Faith will convene in Indianapolis, Indiana for the 51st annual Holy Convocation and National Convention. As senior pastor of Mt. Zion Apostolic Church, it gives me great pleasure to serve as host of this august occasion and to welcome everyone from far and near.

As a centrally located city, Indianapolis has many historical and cultural attractions, upscale restaurants, down-home cafes, and numerous shopping venues. We pray that you will have pleasant travel to and from our city, and trust that your stay will be a safe and memorable one.

At this great Christian assembly, we anticipate the presence of the Lord as we endeavor to fulfill our theme, Equipping the Body of Christ for Effective Ministry. We believe God's presence will be manifested in every business meeting, worship service, fellowship, and activity, and believe that destiny and purpose will be fulfilled in this historic year of leadership transition.

For your convenience, we have provided some information about the convention at this site. Feel free to peruse it at your leisure or contact us at 317-549-1200 if you have questions. We are excited and look forward to seeing all of you as a delegation of believers coming together in full fellowship with Christ.

Yours in His Service,

Bishop Lambert W. Gates, Sr.

F A Q SHEET

Do I need to register for the National Convention?

You will want to register to receive the conference tote bag and program. The cost is $25 through July 1, and $30 beginning July 2.

How is this registration different from the membership registration?

The organization encourages everyone to become a registered member of the PCAF. This helps those who keep the organization's records to track numbers and data for statistical purposes. It also supports the organization financially.

Are meals included in this registration?

The cost for meals is separate from the registration. Meal tickets are $3 for lunch and $8 for dinner and can be purchased at one of several welcome stations at Mt. Zion beginning July 29.

Where will the worship services be held?

All of the worship services will be at Mt. Zion. To accommodate the large delegation expected, concurrent services are planned for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

How will the concurrent services work?

Both services will be complete with full worship, choirs, and speakers. You may choose either service although you may be directed to one or the other depending on how full the sanctuaries are.

Mt. Zion normally has two morning worship services. Will there be an 8:00 a.m. service on Sunday, August 3?

Yes. This will be Mt. Zion's service and not a part of the national convention. Of course the service is open to anyone who would like to attend. The national service begins at 11:30 a.m.

Will transportation be provided from the hotels and airport?

Yes. Shuttle service will be provided back and forth from the church to the Marriott and Hilton, and back and forth from the church to the airport. A schedule of pick-up and drop-off is included in this document. Reservation and tickets are required for shuttle service to and from the airport, train station, and bus station.

What hotels are being used and do I have time to book a room?

Host hotels are the Indianapolis Marriott East, the Hilton Indianapolis North, and Fairfield Inn & Suites. However all rooms have been filled. As a convenience, we have provided a link to Indianapolis Hotels on our homepage.

Besides lodging, how will the hotels be used?

The Marriott will host business meetings, early prayer sessions, the presiding bishop's reception, and all of the after-hours events.

Who can attend the Presiding Bishop's reception?

This event is open to anyone who would like to pay honor to our leader, Bishop Alfred Singleton. The cost is $20.
